

ALEXEY ZHILIN (Russia)

Versione momentaneamente non disponibile

One of the most talented and recognized Russian cellists of our times, Alexey Zhilin performs regularly not only as acclaimed Soloist in Russia, Japan, Korea and Europe, but also as member of David Oistrakh Quartet and Principal First Solo Cello of MusicAeterna ensemble under the baton of Teodor Currentzis.

Born 1987 in Leningrad, at the age of 11, Alexey held the first victory on the International Music Competition in Moscow. Mr Zhilin is laureate of many prestigious international competitions such as International Youth Tchaikovsky Competition in Japan, International Isang Yun Competition (South Korea), International Competition Dr. Luis Sigall (Chili) , International Elsky Competition in Minsk (Belarus), among others.

The final victory at the international Brahms Competition in Austria (2018) was greatly acclaimed by audience and press. Zhilin's highlights performances include debuts as soloist with Mariinsky Theatre Symphony Orchestra, the St. Petersburg Philharmonic Orchestra, the State Symphony Orchestra Novaya Rossiya (art. dir. Yury Bashmet), Russian Philharmonic.

Mr Zhilin played under the baton of renowned conductors including Kent Nagano, Teodor Currentzis, Dimitris Botinis etc.

Furthermore, Alexey is an avid chamber musician and performs regularly with Eliso Virsaladze, Denis Matsuev, Nikita Boriso- Glebsky, Liana Isakadze, Eduard Bruner, Boris Brovtsyn.

He is invited regularly to the main Festivals in Europe and renowned concert halls such as Paris Philharmonie, Flagey Hall in Bruxelles , Wigmore Hall in London, Pierre Boulez Hall in Berlin, Auditori in Barcelona among others.

Since 2013 Alexey Zhilin teaches as Cello Professor at the State Saint Petersburg Conservatory.